

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE, ELECTRONICS, CLOTHING & HOUSEHOLD GOODS DROP-OFF EVENT

Saturday, July 23, 2016 | 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

The City of Fort Lauderdale is offering neighbors a convenient and responsible opportunity for disposal of hazardous waste, electronics, clothing and household goods. Unwanted items will be collected at a drop-off event at Mills Pond Park from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 23, 2016.

Household hazardous waste (HHW) includes common household items that contain toxic chemicals and therefore need proper handling during disposal (paint, pesticides, fluorescent bulbs, etc.).

The Salvation Army will be onsite to collect items in good condition, including:

- Clothing
- Shoes
- Linens
- Small household items
- Small kitchen items, and
- Dishes

DOING
THE MOST GOOD™

No furniture, mattresses or other large items will be accepted.

Proof of residency in the partnering cities of Fort Lauderdale, Coconut Creek, Coral Springs, Pompano Beach or Tamarac is required (driver's license or utility bill) for hazardous waste and electronics drop-off. There is no residency requirement for donations to The Salvation Army.

Those drop-off events are critical to protecting the environment by reducing the volume of waste in landfills and preventing the contamination of ground water.
